PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A year ago, we set about to plan our choral music season without knowing what form it might take. A year ago, the word "virtual" did not hold the meaning it does today. We have accomplished an entirely virtual music season, and a spring fundraiser, with unique perseverance and some luck. We could not have managed through this adversity without you, our steadfast supporters.

Now we look to the future, and once again, what kind of season is ahead of us? We're planning to return to live concerts, but as before, we have to remain flexible. We have confidence knowing we'll be able to count on you again.

On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, thank you so much for staying with the chorus during this bizarre year. We don't take for granted our continued viability as an arts organization, but we have a special and close relationship with you, and with all of our fans out there. We've even been able to expand our influence by use of the Internet, and we're making plans to keep that extended outreach going as we resume live performances.

Yours in song,
Scott Reichlin, MD

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR'S PROGRAM NOTES

Welcome to the final concert of the 2020-21 Willamette Master Chorus season. As promised, we are bringing you sacred music from the Mount Angel Abbey. Every three years we visit this sacred place and offer music appropriate to the "church on the hill." This concert, like the previous ones will be virtual. I'm pleased that we could capture some sounds at the church. As you know, I'm very partial to the beautiful organs at the Abbey. Debra Huddleston and Father Teresio will be playing them specifically for this concert.

Our first piece, Come, Let Us Join Our Cheerful Songs by Winnagene Hatch, is an American Folk Hymn with words from Issac Watts (1707). This piece highlights the fabulous breadth of sound from the gallery organ in the back of the abbey church.

Laetatus Sum features the altos and sopranos of the chorus singing in Latin to the text of Psalm 122. This original composition by Mother Mary John Sevin features Debra playing the smaller choir organ at the front of the church.

Father Teresio Caldwell plays an organ solo on the gallery instrument. In dir ist Freude (In Thee is Gladness) is choral prelude by Johann Sebastian Bach. See if you can pick out this melody that is typically heard at Christmas time. The piece is truly a virtuosic tour de force.

David Schmidt has been writing and arranging for the Willamette Master Chorus for several years. Many of his works have been published and sold throughout the world. I am so pleased that the WMC can premiere this new arrangement of The Morning Trumpet. According to David, he wrote this piece as a plea and prayer to bring an end to the challenging and difficult pandemic that we all have faced in 2020.

Rise Up, Ye Saints of God is set to the hymn tune Festal Song by William H. Walter. The tenors and basses of the chorus offer a rousing a cappella arrangement by Kenneth Jennings of this 19th century hymn.

The sound of bagpipes with organ is a rare treat. Because of the loudness of the pipes, Debra was able to pull out all of the stops on this old familiar Scottish hymn Abide With Me. The miracle of these virtual recordings allowed us to easily balance the sound of the solo voice with the pipes and organ.

I'm not sure there that we will ever hear a jazz band in the abbey church - but there's a first time for everything. Amazing Grace is one of the most meaningful and popular spiritual hymns in the United States. Its message certainly resonates with the changing times we are presently experiencing. This arrangement by Whitworth College Professor, Dan Keberle is written in Count Basie swing style for choir and jazz instrumental combo. Don't be afraid to tap your toe!

I'm so pleased that we could bring a miniature version of our season to you through the newly discovered "Virtual Choir." We look forward to returning with the same plan in 2021-22 - same venues, same singers, and same guests, but with new music and renewed commitment to bring our community together with beautiful choral music. We look forward, hoping for full and in-person concerts in 2021-22. We plan on highlighting the same venues, the same singers and guests, but with different music and a renewed commitment to bring our community together with beautiful choral music. Stay tuned and stay safe.

TEXTS FOR SELECTED PIECES

Come, Let Us Join Our Cheerful Songs

Come, let us join our cheerful songs with angels round the throne;
ten thousand thousand are their tongues, but all their joys are one.
Let all that dwell above the sky, and air, and earth, and seas, conspire to lift God's glory high, and speak in endless praise!
When in his earthly courts we view the glories of our King;
we long to love as angels do, and wish like them to sing.
Behold our King and Saviour crowned with glories all divine;
and tell the wondering nations round, how bright these glories shine!

Laetatus Sum

I was glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.
For my brethren and companions' sakes: I will wish thee peace
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek to do thee good.

The Morning Trumpet

Oh, when shall I see Jesus and reign with Him above
And shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
And from the flowing fountain drink everlasting love
And shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
When will I shout glory! I shall mount above the skies
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
When shall I be delivered from this vain world of sin
And shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
And with my blessed Jesus drink endless pleasures in
And shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
Through grace I feel determined to conquer, though I die,
Then I'll hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
And then away to Jesus on wings of love I'll fly
Oh, when shall I see Jesus in that morning?

TEXTS FOR SELECTED PIECES

Rise Up, ye Saints of God!

Rise up, O Saints of God!
Have done with lesser things.
Give heart and mind and soul and strength to serve the King of kings.

Rise up, O Saints of God!
The kingdom tarries long.
Bring in the day of brotherhood
and end the night of wrong.

Rise up, O Saints of God!
The church for you doth wait,
her strength unequal to her task;
rise up, and make her great!

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where his feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of Man,
rise up, O men of God!

Abide With Me

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.
Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see—
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

TEXTS FOR SELECTED PIECES

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I am found
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come.
'Twas grace has brought us safe thus far
And grace will lead us home.

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright, shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun.

KEEPING CHORAL MUSIC ALIVE

The Willamette Master Chorus is proud to implement a new instructional resource project called "Keeping Choral Music Alive."

This brand-new program is part of the education mission statement of the WMC. During the winter semester 2021, the chorus will be providing financial and organizational support to bring vocal masterclass teachers into Salem-Keizer School District choral classrooms. Twice a month visiting instructors will be aiding middle and high school choral directors in an on-line format to assist students with group vocal sessions and coaching. As we all know, the learning platform over the internet is less than ideal. It is our hope that bringing this added resource to our fellow choral musicians and S-K students will enhance and embolden music learning for a lifetime!

Music From the Heart

GIVING from HOME
